Bespoke Safeguarding Training and Workshops

Partners in Care offers bespoke safeguarding training and workshops, tailored to the specific needs of your organisation, sector and workforce. Sessions are designed and delivered by Karen Littleford, Safeguarding Adults Lead, following discussion to ensure the content, level and focus are right for you.

Our bespoke offer is ideal for organisations that require training aligned to their internal policies, client groups, staff roles or governance responsibilities.

Our Bespoke Safeguarding Training Offer

❖ Safeguarding Adults – Introductory Briefing or Awareness

❖ Safeguarding Adults – Your Role as Safeguarding Lead (including Refresher)

❖ Safeguarding Adults for Boards, Senior Leadership Teams or Trustees

❖ Supporting Adults Who Live in a Hoarded Space – Introduction

❖ Safeguarding Children and Young People – Awareness

❖ Professional Boundaries (Trustees, Boards and Social Care Staff) Children and Young People

❖ Sector-specific safeguarding training (e.g. housing, health, voluntary and community services)

❖ Emerging issues workshops, including AI and Adult Safeguarding – Risks and Opportunities

Why Choose Bespoke Training?

❖ Relevant – tailored to your services, roles and risks

❖ Engaging – interactive delivery with practical examples

❖ Supportive – complex or sensitive topics delivered with confidence and care

❖ Practical – clear guidance on recognising, responding to and reporting safeguarding concerns

What Learners Say
"The training was tailored to our needs and linked clearly to our own policies."
"Very engaging and relevant – real cases really brought the learning to life."
"Excellent delivery of what could be a challenging subject."

Find Out More / Book a Discussion

Karen Littleford
Safeguarding Adults Lead
Email: karen.littleford@partnersincare.org.uk

This document accompanies the Partners in Care safeguarding training webpage and provides an overview of bespoke training options available to members and partner organisations.